LORRAINE PILGRIM

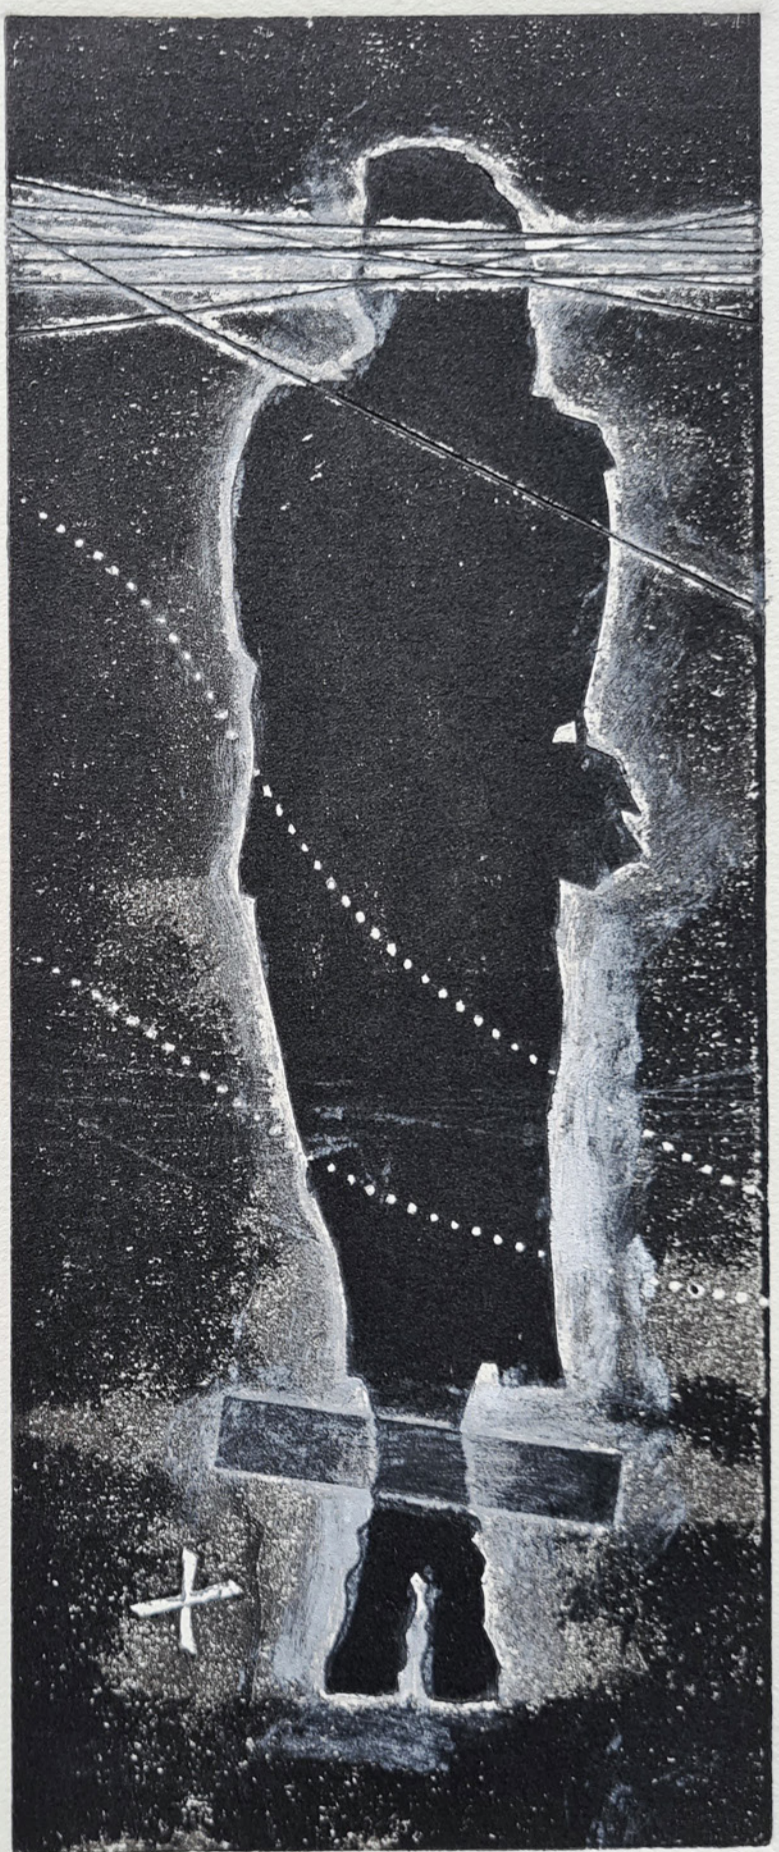

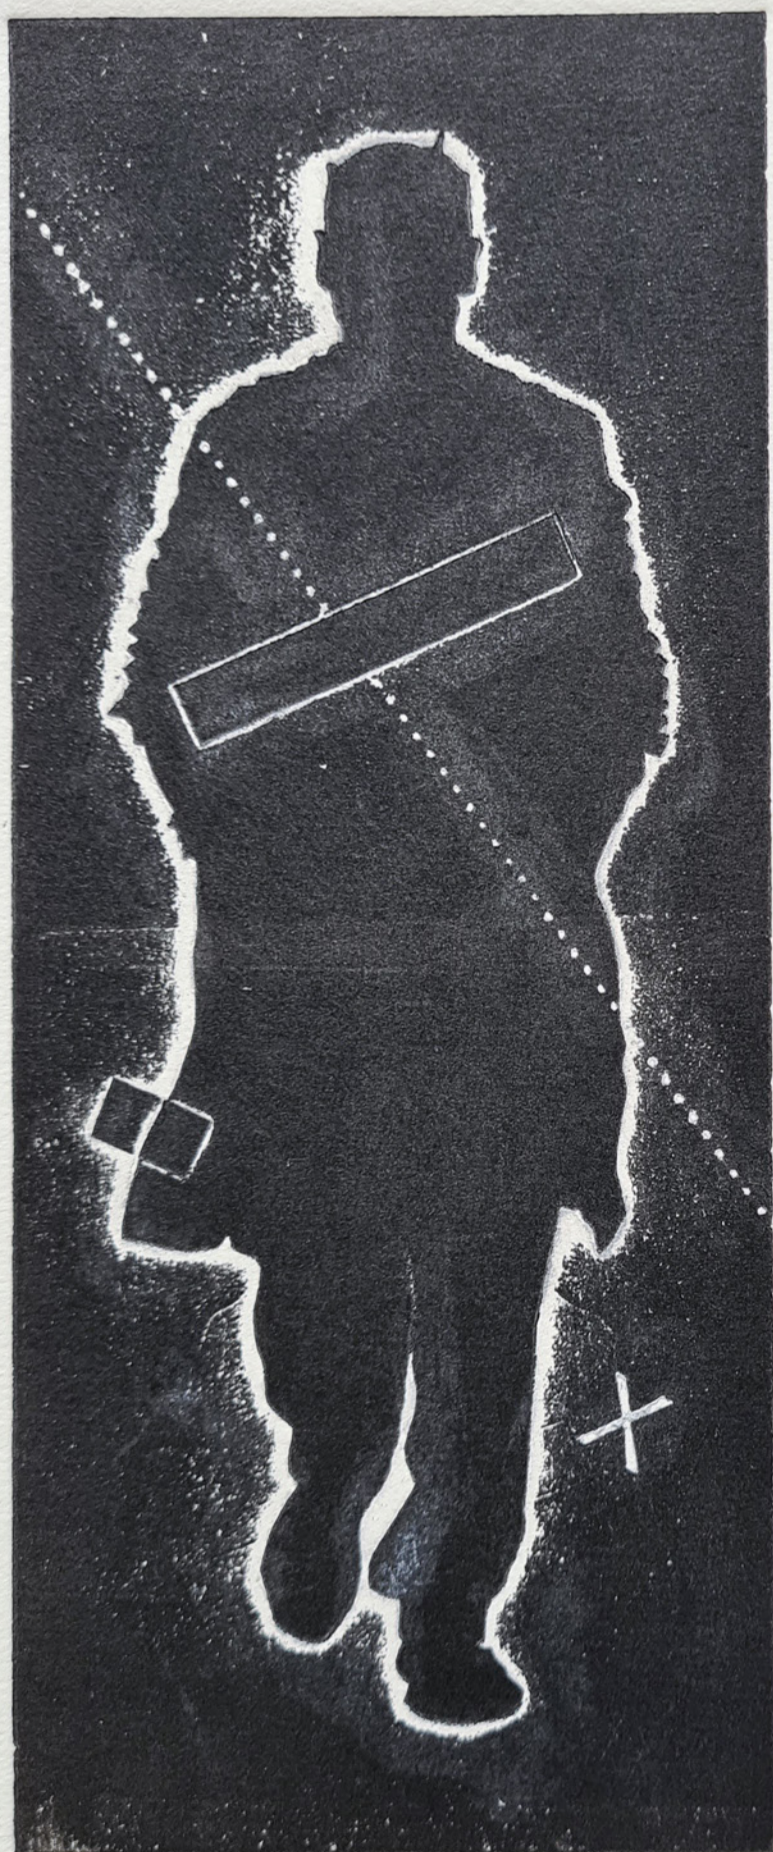

'Margaret's Special Things' oil monotypes – 29 x 21 cm

DONNA MALONE

"Recently, I had the privilege to spend time, alone and quietly, at The Margaret Olley Art Centre, where I was allowed to draw Margaret's special things.

As I drew, I believe I felt her presence emanating from the objects. These little jugs and vessels seemed imbued with a concentration of energy that transformed them from mere objects to subjects that had attained their own individuality and independent life. They were relating with each other..." Donna

'Smoke and Mirrors', 2022,
Collagraph print on Hahnemühle 300gsm paper,
20.5 cm x 18 cm - (image size).

SIMON ROOTS

"As an artist I enjoy exploring the possibilities of expression through painting, drawing and printmaking.

In this series of printmaking works, I'm exploring the use of figurative imagery and it's capacity to suggest a range of possible interpretations through the use of silhouette, symbolic mark-making and muted tones."

Many thanks to Sixty Design for their generous assistance.
